The Chew Food Network

The hosts of ABC's hit daytime TV show "The Chew" bring you their easy, delicious meals, entertaining tips, and money-saving tricks, in this must-have companion cookbook.

The Chew Food Truck Recipes

Every day millions of people tune in and pull up a home-side seat at "The Chew"'s kitchen counter to celebrate life through food. The show's five beloved hosts dish on everything to do with cooking and entertaining. This lively companion book not only captures "The Chew"'s trademark wit, fun, practical advice, and recipes--but highlights the easy ideas that have brought so much to America's family table. "The Chew"'s Iron Chefs, Mario Batali and Michael Symon, show you how to be the master of your own grill; Style Master Clinton Kelly shows you the perfect--and affordable--Thanksgiving table (and what never to bring to a party). Of course, there are mouth-watering creations from dessert diva Carla Hall, as well as Daphne Oz's delicious life-enhancing shakes. Drool over Mario Batali's Chestnut Crepes, Carla Hall's Chocoholic Whoopie Pies, Daphne Oz's Superfoods Smoothie, Michael Symon's Deep-Dish Pizza Casserole, and Clinton Kelly's Spicy Grapefruit Margarita, aka "The Clinton Caliente."

The Chew Food Truck Fever Recipes

Since I don't have a television, I am not very familiar with The Chew, but the book was a gift so I decided to check it out (after all, even without TV, I had heard of the show). I thought the book was fun reading, shares decorating ideas as well as recipes and various interviews, but I had some problems with a few of the recipes. I can see where, if they are making this on TV, it would be easy to follow but on a few (very few), the directions seem to be missing something or not flowing properly. Since I was reading these without preparing them, perhaps it will be different but there were a few instances where I thought, "Wait a minute... where did that come from?" All in all, though, I thought the book was fun, easy reading.

I found that the recipes in this cookbook weren't really fit for everyday. They were too fancy, too many ingredients, too much time. The more basic recipes are common enough that I already have recipes for them that I would not replace. Overall, I only found one recipe in this book I want to try.

Would have liked to see more money saving tips, meals for two, simpler ingredients, kitchen gadgets and tips, and my favorite segment from their show - the traditional vs less guilt recipe showdowns. The Chew Food Show

Not much new and exciting here. I'm trying the recipe for Slow Cooker Peachy Chicken, but it calls for 3 cups of chicken stock. How will that fit in a 3qt slow cooker? I thought you used as little liquid as possible in a slow cooker. I cut that down to 1/2 c to loosen up the other ingredients. I also cut down the peach preserves from 1c to 1/2 cup. Otherwise it smelled good, we'll see how it tastes tonight :)

I watch this show everyday as I eat my pb&j lunch. It is entertaining to read about the cast of the show but I appear to be a visual learner as it is more fun to see them in action than to read the recipes.

The Chew Food Truck Favorites

I am enjoying this book, as I enjoy the show. The recipes chosen are a good representation of those presented on the show -and are clearly written and easy to follow. I am having fun reading all of the tips included in the book.

As a fan of the show, I needed to check out this book. There are some good recipes, but not very many that I would make during the regular work week. I did copy down a few that I will be trying out.

The Chew Food Crawl

Funny and entertaining just like the show. Would have liked to see more recipes and dialogue with Carla but it worked out. Many of the recipes are outside of the scope of the average home cook but the party suggestions were right on time.

Recipes just a little TOO unusual for me to try.
