A Life Interrupted Book

A Lucky Life Interrupted by Tom Brokaw - Review | BookPage A Lucky Life Interrupted is the product of the journal Brokaw, ever the reporter, kept to document his experience. He frankly describes cancer's physical and emotional toll as his treatment proceeded, but he leavens that often sobering account with vivid reminiscences from a career that helped earn him a Presidential Medal of Freedom in 2014. Amazon.com: Watch A Life Interrupted | Prime Video Though "Life Interrupted" is a true story, its heroes act not like real people with their complex, unpredictable character traits but more like actors of Medieval play labeled by their social roles. After 30-40 min the goal of the movie is pretty clear you get an impression that you already know the next scene. A Life, Interrupted - nytimes.com Hannah Emily Upp went for a jog along Riverside Drive, then vanished. She was fished out of New York Harbor nearly three weeks later, alive. What happened in the interim is a still mostly mystery.
